What earlier generations held as sacred, remains sacred and great for us too, and it cannot be all of a sudden entirely forbidden or even considered harmful. It behooves all of us to preserve the riches which have developed in the Church's faith and prayer, and to give them their proper place.

If thou carry the cross willingly, it will carry thee.

Parish Pot-Lucks ... The next two pot-lucks will be next Sunday, 12 Feb (Oktoberfest brew make-up and chilli cook-off) and 19 March. Sign-up to help with food and beverages and/or with set-up and clean-up on the web at signupgenius.com/findasignup (use email nampotlucks@gmail.com). Anyone who will be contributing a home brew, please contact Ross Junkin.

Confirmation ... will be held on Saturday, 7 October (this date was assigned by the Archbishop) at 11 am at St. Alphonsus. Preparation will begin in late July following the summer camps. Any parishioner who will be at least 11 years old as of 7 October may register. Registration forms to follow.

Intentions for the Chartes Pilgrimage ... you may present the 30 plus Chartes pilgrims with your intentions and donation to support their spiritual endeavor. They will carry the intentions with them throughout their pilgrimage and Mass will be offered for those intentions submitted. Several pilgrims and their families will begin an ongoing bake sale to help raise funds for the trip. The bake sale will kick off at the potluck on February 12th and continue for the next several months with edible goods available after both Masses for purchase.

Lenten planning ... Stations will be offered at 7 pm on Wednesday, 11:40 am and 7 pm on Fridays. The Friday Holy Hour/Benediction will follow the Friday evening Mass.

Summer Camp Dates ... this years' summer camps will be held at the Jack Creek campgrounds in Arlington. The girls' camp will be from 9-15 July, followed by the boys' camp from 16-22 July.

Palms ... you may begin turning-in any palms from last year to be burned and to serve as the ashes for Ash Wednesday.

Parish Historical Society ... Please forward any additional parish archival papers to the pastor. Thank you and God bless our founders.

Please Keep in Your Prayers: Souls in Purgatory, Pope Francis, Archbishop Sartain, FSSP seminarians, closure of "planned parenthood", Archbishop Brunett, Helen Clifford, Shirley Hendrix, Dwight Nobles, Mark Hillis, Roberta Pharness, Jackie Phillips, Stephanie Brusich, Jesse Dahl, Dr. Gene Supernaw, Patricia Dowling, Dorothy McVeigh, Chris Hendrix, Sonia Roten, Joyce Barry and Fr. Calvin Goodwin, FSSP.

Women's Groups ... The northern group will meet at the Evans' home (Scott and Lisa) on 18 Feb in Marysville. Please arrive between 5—5:30 pm with a friend and a pot-luck contribution.

Mass intentions ... are now being accepted. Place the intention and the donation in an envelope in the collection basket .

Summer Mission Trips ... registration is now open for the 2017 mission trips to Mexico and Peru (two trips each). Flyers in the vestibules. Our missions are looking for "handy men" who can assist in a number of building projects. More information at SFXMISSION.COM.

Contributions: May God Reward your generosity. (1/29 $4,786.00)

MYSTICI CORPORIS CHRISTI

ENCYCLICAL OF POPE PIUS XII ON THE MYSTICAL BODY OF CHRIST (continued)

For it was by this Breath of grace and truth that the Son of God anointed His soul in the immaculate womb of the Blessed Virgin; this Spirit delights to dwell in the beloved soul of our Redeemer as in His most cherished shrine; this Spirit Christ merited for us on the Cross by shedding His Own Blood; this Spirit He bestowed on the Church for the remission of sins, when He breathed on the Apostles; and while Christ alone received this Spirit without measure, to the members of the Mystical Body He is imparted only according to the measure of the giving of Christ from Christ's own fullness. But after Christ's glorification on the Cross, His Spirit is communicated to the Church in an abundant outpouring, so that She, and Her individual members, may become daily more and more like to our Savior. It is the Spirit of Christ that has made us adopted sons of God in order that one day "we all beholding the glory of the Lord with open face may be transformed into the same image from glory to glory."

To this Spirit of Christ, also, as to an invisible principle is to be ascribed the fact that all the parts of the Body are joined one with the other and with their exalted Head; for He is entire in the Head, entire in the Body, and entire in each of the members. To the members He is present and assists them in proportion to their various duties and offices, and the greater or less degree of spiritual health which they enjoy. It is He Who, through His heavenly grace, is the principle of every supernatural act in all parts of the Body. It is He Who, while He is personally present and divinely active in all the members, nevertheless in the inferior members acts also through the ministry of the higher members. Finally, while by His grace He provides for the continual growth of the Church, He yet refuses to dwell through sanctifying grace in those members that are wholly severed from the Body. This presence and activity of the Spirit of Jesus Christ is tersely and vigorously described by Our predecessor of immortal memory Leo XIII in his Encyclical Letter Divinum Illud in these words: "Let it suffice to say that, as Christ is the Head of the Church, so is the Holy Spirit Her soul."

If that vital principle, by which the whole community of Christians is sustained by its Founder, be considered not now in itself, but in the created effects which proceed from it, it consists in those heavenly gifts which our Redeemer, together with His Spirit, bestows on the Church, and which He and His Spirit, from Whom come supernatural light and holiness, make operative in the Church. The Church, then, no less than each of Her holy members can make this great saying of the Apostle Her own: "And I live, now not I; but Christ liveth in me."

What We have said concerning the "mystical Head" would indeed be incomplete if We were not at least briefly to touch on this saying of the same Apostle: "Christ is the Head of the Church: He is the savior of His Body." For in these words we have the final reason why the Body of the Church is given the name of Christ, namely, that Christ is the Divine Savior of this Body.

Please pray for the souls in purgatory and for a permanent location for the parish.

Litany of Humility

Jesus, meek and humble of heart, hear me.

From the desire of being esteemed, deliver me, O Lord.

From the desire of being loved, deliver me, O Lord..

From the desire of being extolled, deliver me, O Lord.

From the desire of being honored, deliver me, O Lord.

From the desire of being praised, deliver me, O Lord.

From the desire of being preferred to others, deliver me, O Lord.

From the desire of being consulted, deliver me, O Lord.

From the desire of being approved, deliver me, O Lord.

From false humility, deliver me, O Lord.

From the fear of being humiliated, deliver me, O Lord.

From the fear of being despised, deliver me, O Lord.

From the fear of suffering rebukes, deliver me, O Lord.

From the fear of being calumniated, deliver me, O Lord.

From the fear of being forgotten, deliver me, O Lord.

From the fear of being ridiculed, deliver me, O Lord.

From the fear of being wronged, deliver me, O Lord.

From the fear of being suspected, deliver me, O Lord.

That others may be loved more than I,
That others may be esteemed more than I,

That in the opinion of the world,

others may increase and I may decrease,

That others may be chosen and I set aside,

That others may be praised and I unnoticed,

That others may be preferred to me in everything,

That others may become holier than I,

provided that I may become as holy as I should,

O Lord, grant me the grace to desire it.
